

Summer Reading Books

Directions for Families

- Books & activities will be sent home with students on May 24
- Students are to read all books in their pack and complete all activities
- Activities are due back to your child's teacher on August 30
- If all activities are returned, students will receive a treat from their school in September 2014
- All books can be kept at home for your child's personal library

HAPPY READING!